

THIS IS THE FLOUR

own interest at heart—Don't let anyone tell you some other flour is as good.

Every good grocer will recommend and sell PILLSBURY'S BEST to his customers because he wants to give them the best value for their money. It is different with the unscrupulous dealer. He will recommend the kind that he makes the most profit on.

When you order flour order PILLSBURY'S BEST and see that you get it. If your dealer does not keep it, it is his own fault, and you should go to the grocer who thinks enough of your trade to keep the best flour and the flour that you want.

The PILLSBURY CO. was awarded the three highest prizes at the World's Fair, St. Louis, as follows:

PILLSBURY'S BEST FLOUR was awarded the Grand Prize for the best flour.

Bread made from PILLSBURY'S BEST FLOUR was awarded the Grand Prize for Bread.

THE PILLSBURY CO. was awarded the Grand Prize for the best exhibit.

These three prizes were the Grand or Sweepstake Prizes and are away above any other prize. This shows plainly that PILLSBURY'S BEST is in a class all by itself and should be evidence enough for any good housekeeper that PILLSBURY'S BEST is the Best Flour made and the flour that she should use if she has her

Named For His Satanic Majesty.
The unfortunate disaster by which a life has been lost on the Welsh mountain known as the Devil's Kitchen has drawn attention, says the Dundee Advertiser, to the curious but seemingly universal practice of past times in naming peculiar natural features. It is scarcely a country in the British Isles is without some place or thing with the designation Devil, all of which prompts the thought that his Satanic majesty must be a holder of a considerable amount of property on this terrestrial globe. The Devil's Punch Bowl, the Devil's Bellows, the Devil's Beef Tub, the Devil's Frying Pan, the Devil's Lake, the Devil's Dike, the Devil's Caldron, are a few instances which occur at random, scattered about in various parts of the country.

Made Red Hair Fashionable.
The French painter who won attention for his red headed girls cannot be classed among the great masters, but he made red hair fashionable and is said to have been responsible for the introduction of his sweetly brown and red tresses to the art world did pink and white beauty and it was inspired to be fair. Red heads extinguished the blond cendree, and even the dark haired "washied" their locks until they were of the desired Henner colorings and acquired "tones" that were so warm they improved the duldest skin. Henner's pictures may be said to have apotheosized the much derided "carrot head." He saw red and made it "heavenly brown."

The Mustache.
The home of the mustache is in Spain, and here is the history of its origin: After the Moors first invaded the country the Christian and Moslem population became so mixed that it was difficult to say which were Moors and which Spaniards. The Spaniards then hit upon a means by which they could at once distinguish their brethren. They did not shave their lips any longer and they allowed a tuft of hair to grow below their under lips, so that their beards formed the rule outline of a cross. Thus the mustache became a symbol of liberty and fraternity.

Have a Purpose.
Have a purpose in life and stick to it. Be sure you're right, that the purpose is worth your effort, that to win is just the thing, and then stick. Live plain, be honest and work hard. Steady work and plain food will keep a man in the path of rectitude when serious fail and contribute not a little to his success. The brain cannot do its best work when sprinkled with the ashes of a dissolute, ill directed life. Be sure you're right, then stick.—Dr. Abbott.

Needless.
The good fairy called her assistant and showed her a golden box. "Take this box," she said, "and lock it carefully in the safe. It contains good advice." "My mistress," replied the assistant, "why should we lock up good advice? No one will ever take it."—Puck.

The Boy and His Pa.
"I make a chum of my father." "I could never do that with mine." "Wouldn't he like it?" "He might, but ma wouldn't. I'm usually out till after midnight."—Houston Post.

The reason why lovers are never weary of one another is this—they are never taking of themselves.—Rocheffoucauld.
